Old Business

Rabbi Arthur Vernon recommended that the committee wait for the outcome of the election before deciding on next steps for our working groups.

New Business

Mickheila Jasmin-Beamon shared that the Nassau Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc will be resuming its Small Business Crawl this year. The goal is to highlight minority businesses throughout Nassau and patronize them on Small Business Saturday (November 27, 2021). Please share any business recommendations to Mickheila and she will submit them to the Economic Development Committee.

Rabbi Arthur Vernon asked whether the Office of Minority Affairs should be involved in organizing/promoting the upcoming Interfaith Luncheon since it is a religious event.

- Biena Depena recommended that the Office of Minority be approached to promote/share the event but leave attending the (religious) event to the discretion of individual members
- Kyle Rose-Louder raised the wider implication of having a government office participate in religious events

Nadine Burnett noted that the Office of Minority Affairs may be hiring a program director and new employee(s) to assist with the Multicultural Festival. Executive Director Lionel Chitty should be providing an update during the December 2021 meeting.
