Became a local law on March 7, 2019 with approval of the County Executive

WHEREAS, there has been a disturbing increase in the phenomenon known as “revenge porn”, wherein individuals maliciously disclose sexually explicit images, typically of former sexual partners, without consent of the subject and in order to cause them distress or embarrassment; and

WHEREAS, with the rise of social media and the advent of cyberspace, and the pervasive role the digital world has come to play in our lives, intimate images can be disseminated on literally a global scale in the time it takes to press a key or a touch pad; and

WHEREAS, such dissemination results in an appalling invasion of privacy and terrible humiliation causing potentially devastating emotional pain, suffering, distress, reputational and financial injury to the individuals portrayed in such images; and

WHEREAS, the law of this State does not afford adequate protection to victims of revenge porn; and

WHEREAS, it is the judgment of this Legislature that it is necessary to protect such victims by explicitly prohibiting the non-consensual distribution of such images and affording a remedy for the violation of such prohibition while maintaining the utmost regard for freedom of speech and expression;

THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by the County Legislature of the County of Nassau, as follows:

Section 1. Chapter VIII of Chapter 272 of the Laws of 1939 constituting the Nassau County Administrative Code, is hereby amended to add a new Title O, as follows:

"Intimate image" means a photograph, film, videotape, recording or any other reproduction of a still or moving image, depicting an individual whose intimate parts are exposed in whole or in part or who appears to be engaged in, appears about to be engaged in, or appears to have just been engaged in, a sexual act where the depicted individual did not intend such image be disclosed at the time the covered recipient gained possession of or access to the intimate image. An intimate image does not include any image taken in a public place, as defined in New York Penal Law § 240.00, except if, at the time the image was photographed, filmed, videotaped, recorded or reproduced, an individual in the depicted individual's position would reasonably have believed that no one other than the covered recipient could view the applicable intimate parts or sexual act while such parts were exposed or such act was occurring.

§ 8-134.2. Unlawful Disclosure of Intimate Images.

- A. No covered recipient shall, with intent to cause material harm to the physical, mental, emotional or financial welfare of a depicted individual, disclose or threaten to disclose an intimate image of such depicted individual, where:
1. The intimate image was created by or provided to the covered recipient under circumstances in which the depicted individual has a reasonable expectation of privacy;
  2. The depicted individual is or would be identifiable either from the intimate image or from the circumstances under which such image is disclosed or threatened to be disclosed; and
  3. The disclosure or threatened disclosure is without the consent of the depicted individual and did or would occur under circumstances in which a reasonable person would have known that the depicted individual did not consent to disclosure.

Section 2. Severability.

If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, or part of this law or the application thereof to any person, individual, corporation, firm, partnership, entity, or circumstance shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such order or judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this law, or in its application to the parson, individual, corporation, firm, partnership, entity, or circumstance directly involved in the controversy in which such order or judgment shall be rendered.

Section 3. SEQRA Determination.
