

LEARN HOW TO AVOID FALLING VICTIM TO SCAMMERS

NYS Senator Jack M. Martins

In Partnership with:

Nassau County Executive Bruce Blakeman
Nassau County Office of Crime Victim Advocate
Nassau County Police Department
Family & Children's Association

invite you to a

SCAM PREVENTION SEMINAR

TUESDAY, MARCH 26 AT 11 A.M.

LOCUST VALLEY LIBRARY

170 Buckram Rd., Locust Valley, NY 11560

RSVP TO (516) 922-1811 OR SALGADO@NYSENATE.GOV

Whether by phone, internet, or even in person, scams are on the rise, especially those targeting seniors. They cost consumers $8.8 billion in 2022 alone!

Scams can happen to any of us. If you believe you have been the victim of a scam, call:

NYS Division of Consumer Protection Helpline:
(800) 697-1220

Monday - Friday 8:30am - 4:30pm (excluding holidays)

For additional tips on how to avoid falling victim to scams, visit: www.dos.ny.gov/consumer-protection.

