

Eileen Melara
11th Grade
Baldwin High School
841 Ethel T Kloberg Dr, Baldwin, NY 11510

Nassau County is a great place to live, work, and play. Why? The answer to that question is limitless. Nassau is an impeccable place for people to live a luxurious life. It is known for its range of opportunities and it is super populous and diverse. Nassau was first formed in 1899 by the division of Queens County. As time went on, cheerful communities and neighborhoods developed that will help you gain gratification from having your desires fulfilled. There is a comfortable atmosphere of peace and quiet living in Nassau; it will help you to honor and live your life to the fullest.

There are millions of opportunities and reasons why living in Nassau is ideal. The people living here will help to exhilarate anyone that they cross paths with. You will feel like you have a sense of purpose in Nassau. People in Nassau are filled with enthusiasm and that energy can help anyone's frown turn upside down. You will be able to feel like you fit in and your neighborhoods will help you to provide a sense of space. The communities are diverse and different, so you will have no trouble in finding and connecting with someone that matches your style. There are people able to help others out of kindness in the face of adversity. Not only are the communities altruistic, but they show a sense of humility. People not only love Nassau for their communities and neighborhoods, but also because there are numerous sites to visit in Nassau. The options are endless, and they fit everyone's standards. Whether you are interested in art, history, shopping, etc. you can visit the reputable Roosevelt Field Mall, Eisenhower Park, the Nassau County Museum of Art, and many more. Thinking about the opportunities Nassau has to offer for your kids? Well, look no further. Nassau is a great place for play. You can visit the Long Island Children's Museum; not only do they have great sources of entertainment, the education Nassau has to provide for kids is excellent. There are many programs that students can enter in to help them win academic awards, programs to help kids and parents financially. Nassau provides a safe place for families with their designated police department and fire commission. In general, your example of an ideal place to live will be found in Nassau County.

Finding a job is a top priority for people who are seeking to live a financially secure life. There are so many opportunities here in Nassau that will help you and encourage you to push yourself to your limits. There are a thousand plus jobs available in Nassau, NY. The working conditions, wages, and hours will be yours to choose from and control. There are even organizations to help immigrants find secure jobs with the resources that they can offer. Upwardly Global, for example, is a national organization that is active in Nassau County and they are willing to work with immigrants and support them, so the immigrants can have careers they have always desired. Teresa Hercules, for example, my Mom is a very hard working and courageous woman. She stayed because she knew there is no place like Nassau: the food, community, adventures and so many more options in Nassau. One place in the world where you feel like the center with an energy that attracts you like no other place does is right here, in Nassau County. It is almost seen as impossible to leave Nassau once you arrive.

Overall, Nassau County will meet people's needs. Being able to connect with and understand each other is what brings unity. There are manifold opportunities and cultures that make Nassau a unique place. People are able to share their ideas with no fear and stand proudly because they know that Nassau has a community that is nothing but supportive and encouraging. Nassau is filled with bright colors that will help you shine, but truly the main goal of Nassau is to achieve people's desire and you can count on Nassau to fulfill that. It can impact your life, inspire you, and create a spark that will stay in your heart. Nassau is a great place to live, work, and play. Why? Because it is a place where you can truly feel home.